Cork Noticeboard, 60 x 90 cm

Short Description

This cork noticeboard features

- self healing cork surface
- anodized aluminum frame
- comes including wall fixing

Long Description

The Lyreco Cork Noticeboard with aluminum frame 60 x 90 cm is perfect for organizing your workspace. The cork surface is self-healing and resistant, no marks are visible when the push pins are removed. It's a handy way to inform everyone at once, to get creative or set goals. Use push pins to put up pictures, memos or lists in your office or at home. The aluminum frame not only adds a touch of elegance to the board but also enhances its overall sturdiness and longevity. The frame's modern design seamlessly complements any office or classroom decor, making it a stylish addition to any environment. Its size makes it ideal for larger displays while maintaining a professional look.
