Autentik is a range entirely created from collected and sorted waste. The recycled board is manufactured in France at the Clairefontaine factory using recovered paper bales.

Made from recycled cardboard, covered with dyed-through card, with no printing, lamination or plastic film. Completely natural and therefore easy to recycle.

The Autentik ring binder is therefore the only product on the market of this quality, strong although recycled, for real durability and intensive use. These soft, fashionable colours are suitable for personal as well as professional filing.

Rigid, it allows filing and storage on a shelf, on the desk or at school, while remaining easy to carry. A4 format, suitable for filing sheets, punched pockets and A4 dividers.

100% French manufacturing, from raw material to finishing in the Exacompta-Clairefontaine factories, with Blue Angel certification confirming that the product is made from post-consumer waste.
